

beatles - Happy Rishikesh Song

Date: Mon, 15 Jan 1996 16:45:33 -0600
From: davies[at]ils.nwu.edu (Brian Davies)
Subject: CRD: Happy Rishikesh Song (Beatles' outtake)

Here's a fun little ditty recorded by John, while they were in Rishikesh, India, discovering transcendental meditation:

THE HAPPY RISHIKESH SONG by John Lennon

Transcribed by Brian Davies
Comments & corrections to davies[at]ils.nwu.edu

(Capo 5th fret.)

[G] All you need to [Em] do is to [G] say this little [Em] word;
I [G] know it sounds ab[Em]surd but it's [D] true.
The [G] magic in the [Em] mantra will [G] give you all the [Em] answers.
Just [G] swallow this, that's [D] all you got to [G] do.

[D] Everything you need is here,
And [G] everything that's not here is not there,
And [D] if there's something missing in this God almighty plan
[G] Could it be you [Em] need a [G] woman? [Em]

First Verse

Second Verse (n.c. on last line)

First Verse

[n.c.] Take three times a day after every meal.

First Verse

* Brian Davies (davies[at]ils.nwu.edu) * There are three kinds of lies: *
* http://www.ils.nwu.edu/~davies/ * Lies, damned lies, and release *
* Institute For The Learning Sciences * dates.
*
* 1890 Maple Ave, Evanston, IL, 60201 * - guess who *

