

counting crows - Shallow Days

A Mary-Jaine says its alright, she's just around the corner from the main line

A
 Any day now, its alright. She's standing on the precipice of big time

A
 And I know I'm a little up tight. I got to go before the sun shine
 A
 We're just a couple small people squeezing out a life. We need a little good time

F#m E D
 Its not far from here. Mary comes and goes. Drifting through the scenery of shallow days below. And then as everybody knows you follow
 F#m E D

A
 trains out of town and they vanish somewhere under the horizon
 Yeah well I saw

A Mary-Jaine drag her shadow down the tracks, stair of into the distance.

F#m E D
 Its not far from here. Mary waves hello. Smiling though she's F#m E D
 sinking in the shallow days below

Bm D F#m
 I can't find the way out of here, out on the road again
 Bm D F#m
 I'm much much too concerned about Mary-Jaine. I'm all alone again and

Bm D F#m
 I like what she said, but not what it means. She leaves me drowning through the Bm D F#m E shallow days, down below

A
 I know I heard a band playing waltzes in a grange hall, the sun is sinking lower

A
 People stair at Mary-Jaine humming softly to herself. Ain't nobody really knows her

 And any day now its alright. She tells herself that this will be the last time

 And Mary-Jaine pulls her hair back and wonders what she'll do with all the free time

F#m E D
 Not too far from here. Mary turns to go. Smiling while the

F#m E D
waltz begins to dancin down the road, hey, hey
Bm D F#m
Hey hey Mr. Freedom, what are we supposed to think?
Bm D F#m
Cause I'm a very tiny person, and it worries me, out all alone again and
Bm D F#m
I like what she said but not what it means, she leaves me drowning in the
Bm D F#m
shallow days way down below

Hey, yeah yeah yeah...oooooh yeah yeah yeah yeah yeeah yeah yeah yeah

I'm sorry. She said "I know, its not the kind of thing you want.
I'm falling, falling

A down" I'm sorry. She said "I know, I'm not the kind of girl you want We're D F#m E
falling, ooooooh
D F#m E
Falling, ooooooooooh
D F#m E
Falling, falling down...
