These are the two main chords that make up the song
 (actually, the main riff)

E--2--2--2-----2-----|
B--3--3--3-----3-----|
G--2--2--2-----0-----|
D--0-----0-----0-----|
A-----0---0---x-----|
E-----3-----|

Strum those in rhythm, and it should sound right.
 Those are the chords for all of the verse parts.
 For the bridge, just apreggiate them.

The verse is just a repetition on those chords for 8 bars I think,
 heres the chorus

G          A          Em          G          D
I'm almost drowning in her sea, shes nearly crawlin on her knees

Fpr the last chorus, its

G          A          Em          A          Em
I'm almost drowning in her sea, she's nearly crawlin on her knees,

          G          D
It's almost everything I need

Essentailly for everything not Tabbed out, play the main riff.
 Good luck!
 John

Sullivan Street by Counting Crows from August and Everything After Words: Adam Duritz
 Music: Adam Duritz & David Bryson

This is a very simple song to play involving a few easy chords with alternating bass strings played. The effectiveness comes from the haunting, soulful vocals.

D/G = D chord with a G bass (300032)

Intro: D D/G D D/G D D/G D D/G

D Took the way home D/G that leads back to Sullivan Street D D/G
D Across the water D/G and home through the town D D/G
D Past the shadows D/G that fall down wherever we meet D D/G
D Pretty soon now, D/G I won't come around D D/G
//// (strong strum)

A Em
I'm almost drowning in her sea
G D
She's nearly fallen to her knees
D D/G D D/G
Took the way home(Ba, Ba, Baaaa)

D Took the way home D/G that leads back to Sullivan Street D D/G
D Where all the bodies D/G hang on the air D D/G
D If she remembers D/G she hides it whenever we meet D D/G
D Either way now D/G I don't really care D D/G

'Cause I'm gone from there

A Em
I'm almost drowning in her sea
G D (arpeggio*)
she's nearly crawling on her knees

D/G D D/G

D D/G
She's down on her knees
D D/G
She's down on her knees

(strum)

D Took the way home D/G that leads back to Sullivan Street D D/G
D Where I'm just another rider D/G burned to the ground D D/G

Come tumbling down

A Em
I'm almost drowning in his sea
