

elvis presley - I Really Don't Want To Know

C F C
Oh, how many arms have held you,
And hated to let you go?
How many, oh, how many, I wonder?
But I really don't want, I don't want to know.

C F C
Oh, how many lips have kissed you,
And set your soul aglow,
How many, oh, how many, I wonder?
But I really don't want to know.

C F C
So, always make me wonder.
And always make me guess.
And even if I ask you,
Oh, darling, don't confess.

C F C
Just let it remain your secret.
Oh, for darling, I love you so.
No wonder, yeah, no wonder, I wonder.
Mmm, cause I really don't want, I don't want to know.
