IT HURTS ME TOO by Mel London

Arranged by Elmore James

Rearranged by Eric Clapton

Transcribed by Brian Davies (comments to davies[at]ils.nwu.edu)

Clapton uses the following riff, pretty much note-for-note as the introduction and both solos. If you're feeling really authentic, substitute a slide for all the hammer-ons and pull-offs. The lyrics with chords follow...

Introduction

You said you was [C#] hurting, almost lost your mind,
 And the man you [F#] love, he hurts you all the time.
 When things go [C#] wrong, go wrong with [G#] you,
 [F#] It hurts me, [C#] too. [G#]

You love him [C#] more when you should love him less.
 I pick up be[F#]hind him and take his mess.
 When things go [C#] wrong, go wrong with [G#] you,
 [F#] It hurts me, [C#] too. [G#]

He love another [C#] woman and I love you,
 But you love [F#] him and stick to him like glue.
 When things go [C#] wrong, go wrong with [G#] you,
