Content-Description:

Here's it! I hope I got the lyrics right! I'll post the .crd soon!

NEXT TIME YOU SEE HER

She got everything a man could ever ask for,
She is lovely, brighter than a morning star,
She's so beautiful, portrait of a sunset,
She got everything, including my old car.

R I: Next time you see her, tell her that I love her,
Next time you see her, tell her that I care,

Next time you see her, tell her that I love her,
Next time I see you, boy you better beware.

I'm just tryin' to warn you, (I think I got this part wrong,
That you're about to get her. it makes no sense!)
I couldn't leave her last love,
So how could you be her first.

I want to tell you buddy, things are about to get rough.
I think that she's only flirting, but I think that I've had enough.

R I:

R II: And if you see her again, I will surely kill you.
And if you see her again, I will surely kill you.
