ROCKY ROAD BLUES
performed by Tom Fogerty
(probably written by him too)
album: Excalibur (1972)
tab transcribed by Collins Crapo <roxtar[at]srv.net>

         D
Well, my road is rocky, but it won't be rocky long
         G                                    D
Yeah, my road is rocky, but it won't be rocky long
      A7               G                D
Well, another man has got my baby and gone
```

Verse 2:
I've got the blues, I'm a-wearin' the soles right out of my shoes
I've got the blues, I'm a-wearin' the soles right out of my shoes
My baby ran away and left me with the doggone blues

Verse 3:
You're gonna lap up this water till the old old well runs dry
You're gonna lap up this water till the old old well runs dry
You never miss your baby till she says goodbye

(instrumental, same pattern as verse)

(repeat all 3 verses)
