

manic street preachers - Further Away

From: Starla Iha <david.morland[at]virgin.net>
Subject: Further Away TAB

Artist: Manic Street Preachers
Song: Further Away
Album: Everything Must Go

Here's another song from the Manics most recent album.
I know they swore they'd never write a love song but this could be called one. Nicky say's it's more a song about being away from your loved ones. Anyway, it's a great song and I hope you enjoy playing it!

Lyrics:

The further away I get from you,
the harder it gets for everyone else,
for everyone else.
The happier I am when I'm with you,
the harder it gets when I am alone,
when I am alone.
The harder I try to learn something from you,
further away.

The further away feel it fade into your childhood,
further away,
further away feel dazed and misunderstood,
further away.

The stiller the oxygen the harder you breathe,
the draining away just like an old man's dream,
just like an old man's dream.
The simpler the answer the harder it can get,
the circular landscape comes back only with regret.
The more estranged I feel from my youth,
further away.

The further away feel it fade into your childhood,
further away,
further away,
feel dazed and misunderstood,
further away.

Further away,
further away,
further away,
further away.
