 Playing so free like a breath, rippling by

Fmaj7                           Dm6[or Dm/F]
 The note is eternal, I hear it, it sees me,

 The noise that I was hearing was a million people cheering

 As people assemble, civilization

G                      G7 C/G                      G                      G7 C/G G
 Is trying to find a new way to die

Am                      Emsus4                      E
 But killing is really merely scene changer

Am                      Dm/F                      Am                      Dm/F Fmaj7/A Am
 All men are bored                      with other men's lives

[repeat chorus]

Gas on the hillside, oil in the teacup
 Watch all the chords of life lose their joy
 Distortion becomes somehow pure in its wildness
 The note that began all can also destroy.

Am                      C/A (Am7)                      Dm/F                      G/A
 We all know success when we all find our own dream
 And our love is enough to knock down any wall
 And the future's been seen as men try to realize
 Am                      Am7/A                      Dm/F                      G/A
 The simple secret of the note in us all

Am                      C                      F                      G

[solo]
[chorus]

[verse from demo]
 [Today is the day when sound curdles mountains
 Flowing and blowing each man it its wake
 Destroying itself in the end with vibration
 There's nothing on earth its challenge can take
 Excepting one note]

There once was a note... listen
